

Tug-O-War was the most popular main event among the young males at the 1st Annual Olympic Day held at Colonial Village.

IMPROVES YOUR CHILD'S READING-FREE

NHA has college educated Certified Reading Specialists to assist students with reading. NHA had a remarkable year with a 78% improvement in reading aptitude. Don't wait; register your child for Norwalk Housing Authority's After-School Program today!

- FREE Homework Help
- FREE Literacy Support
- FREE Computer Access
- FREE Tutoring
- FREE Enrichment Programs

Call today for information and registration packets:
 Colonial Village- 203-857-0432, 2:00-7:00pm; Meadow Gardens- 203-899-0729, 2:00-7:00pm;
 Roodner Court-203-838-9164, 4:00-7:00pm and Washington Village-203-838-8471x162, 4:00-7:00pm.

New "Future Zone" for High School Students

- FREE Find out which career interests you.
- FREE Choose a college, trade school, or alternate path after graduation.

- FREE SAT Prep classes
- FREE Interview training, resume help, self assessments
- FREE Teen Job Placement Opportunities.
- FREE Regular assistance from Student Advisors.
- FREE Scholarship Opportunities

Hours of Operation:

20 West Ave. Grades-6-7-8-9 from 3:00pm-5:30pm
 Future Zone-Grades-10-11-12 from 5:30pm-8:00pm

NHA Seeks Laborer!

On-site work includes cleaning common areas & grounds and completing work logs.. $17.79/hr. Some overtime required. Driver's license, high school diploma or equivalent. Send resume or complete an application at Norwalk Housing Authority, 24 1/2 Monroe Street, Norwalk, CT 06856-

0508 or fax to 203-838-6535 by September 20, 2010.

Free/Reduced School Lunch Program

Check your kids backpacks for Free/Reduced School Lunch applications. To apply for free or reduced price meals, parents should fill out the application and return it to the child's school. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

Carol's Jump Rope Art Contest

Stepping Stones hosted the "Carol's Jump Rope Art Contest", where students were asked to depict a scene of kids jumping rope. The contest creator, Carol, said "I picked jumping rope because it is a fun past time and one my sister and I loved to do together." Out of all the submissions, a NHA student from Meadow Gardens, Kamora Prince, was chosen as the winner. She received a full year Family Membership to Stepping Stones, $25.00 Gift Shop Certificate, Stepping Stones T-Shirt, and a Wall Tile with her picture on it! As a bonus to start off the school year, Stepping Stones will also give Kamora a backpack for her to start school with and a dot to dot, picture crossword and sticker books. Way to go Kamora!

FREE BOOKS!

Elijah Rose, age 10 will be attending Roton Middle School this fall. On a visit last year he picked up FREE books in the main NHA office. A book on electricity, Elijah read helped him get an A- on his science project. According to his Mom, Lashani Jones, Elijah loves to read and do further research on what he has read! Come by and check out our wide selection of books in the reception area.

Free Diapers!

NEON has the opportunity to provide 100 free diapers per child for the months of August and September to any child born in the US who is TANF eligible. Diapers will be received by September 6 with distribution immediately. Call Jo-Ann Stabler, Child Care Director at 203-451-0436 to apply.

Ready to Think About Homeownership?

Attend Homeward PATH on Thursday, September 9, 2010 from 1:30pm-4:30pm at NEON, Ben Franklin Center 165 Flax Hill Road, 3rd Floor Norwalk, CT 06854

Presented by Money Management International. FREE and Open to All! Registration at NEON or leave a message at 203-663-7446.

FRAUD RESULTS IN EVICTION!

Did you know that Norwalk Housing Authority recently evicted residents from Roodner Court and 356 Main Ave. for FRAUD! Failing to report income or falsifying documents will result in eviction as well as being reported Office of Inspector General, which could result in arrest.

Would you like to save half off supermarket prices on branded, top quality food?

You can with Angel Food Ministries, a not-for-profit that is helping to feed thousands of people.

For just $30, Angel Food's Signature Box provides fresh and frozen food items with a retail value of over $60! Just one Signature Box assists in feeding a family of four for about one week or a single senior citizen for almost a month. Angel Food also offers low-cost fresh fruits and veggies, steaks, chicken, pork, snack items and heat n serve meals for the dietary needs of diabetics and seniors. All items are priced about half off supermarket prices!

You can order using a debit or credit card on-line at www.angelfoodministries.com or call (877) 366-3646. There is no application to fill out and no limits on orders. Check the web-site for more information on paying with cash or Food stamps. Food deliveries will be available on the last Saturday of each month.

Pre-kindergarten Registration! Act Quickly!

Neon is recruiting 4 year olds for their pre-kindergarten 6-hour and/or 10-hour day slots. Call as soon as possible (203) 852-9625 or visit NEON

Headstart to register. These slots go very quickly, so act fast!

Attention Roodner Court Residents

A community meeting will be held at the Norwalk Police Department on September 2, 2010 at 6:30pm in the Community Room. NHA staff as well as Norwalk Police Dept. will be present. Residents are encouraged to attend.

Attention 16 School Street Residents

A community meeting will be held at the Senior Court Community Center, 9 Union Ave., Norwalk on September 8, 2010 at 5:30pm. NHA staff as well as Norwalk Police Dept. will be present. Residents are encouraged to attend.

Afternoon Sing Along

Come & Sing along with guitarist Bob Forte on September 24, 2010 at 1:00pm in the Leroy Downs Community Room, 26 Monroe St., Norwalk, CT. Light refreshments will be served. If you need a ride, call Diana Chavez at 203-852-1144 ext. 124.

