 This project does not discriminate on the basis of disability status in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in its federally assisted programs and activities. As required in the HUD Occupancy Handbook 4350.3 REV-1, all individuals with disabilities have the right to request reasonable accommodations.
 Date

Reasonable accommodations are changes, exceptions, or adjustments to a program, service, building, dwelling unit, or workplace that will allow a qualified person with a disability to: participate fully in a program; take advantage of a service; live in a dwelling; or perform a job. To show that a requested accommodation may be necessary, there must be an identifiable relationship, or nexus, between the requested accommodation and the individual's disability. Requests for Reasonable Accommodations should be brought to the attention of management.
